

Volunteer to Assist Victims of Domestic Violence - You Can Make a Difference! Applications Being Accepted

Domestic violence is never a victim's fault and 180 Turning Lives Around (180) stands with all victims. Join 180's life changing mission today and help victims of domestic violence find the courage and strength to turn their lives around. Domestic violence does not just stop because of the many crises we have been facing. In fact, when stressors increase, violence and abuse can quickly escalate. For many victims, staying at or working from home means being isolated with someone who is harming them. It is in these very trying times victims need 180 even more and we are here for anyone who needs our services.

180's Domestic Violence Response Team (DVRT) Volunteer Advocates are civilian members of the community who work collaboratively with law enforcement to provide confidential support, information, and resources to victims of domestic violence at police headquarters. Advocates also discuss with victims safety planning and their legal rights in regard to obtaining a Temporary Restraining Order. By providing support and crucial perspective of the situation, specially-trained advocates help to empower victims to make informed decisions for themselves and their families. The identities of the DVRT volunteers are kept anonymous. Prior knowledge of domestic violence is not required. 180 and the police departments are committed to culturally and socially diverse teams to better serve the community. Bi-lingual capability is helpful. Training will be provided free of charge to successful applicants. Deadline to apply is April 14th.
